

2008 Summer School

InKAS is holding a summer school program for overseas Korean adoptees to experience and learn Korean Culture from 1st of August (Fri) to 14th of August (Thu), 2008.

It is our desire to aid in finding Overseas Korean adoptees' birth families and assist in understanding and experiencing the true Korean Culture during their visit. The program is mainly coordinated for overseas Korean adoptees to experience Korean cuisine, custom, culture and language via opportunities of direct participation and experiences of Korean Living.

InKAS Summer School is composed of several hands-on programs. There will be Korean Cuisine Cooking, Taekwondo, and other practical classes. After the classes, you will find an opportunity to experience the culture of Korean young people's lives with Korean young adults.

About program

- Korean culture Classes

1. Korean Cuisine Cooking : Distinct cooking curriculum to learn the traditional and modern Korean cuisines
2. Taekwondo : Learning basic posture of Korean traditional military art
3. Calligraphy : Experience Korean Traditional art of writing
4. Visiting Korean Demilitarized Zone(DMZ): See the other side of Korea and army base
5. Traditional Korean Games : Play Korean traditional games by team
6. B-boy performance or Nanta performance

- Gathering with Korean young adults
